H-1B RTW Promising Practices for Increasing Certificate and Credentialing

Outcomes

4/12/2018

Moderator(s): Monica Evans

Speaker(s): Erika Humphrey & Tressa Dorsey

As grantees near the conclusion of their project's grant period, credentialing and certification attainment goals continues to be a challenge.

This interactive webinar was designed to provide strategies that would help increase credentialing and certification attainment goals and provide grantees with solutions. Subject Matter Expert Tressa Dorsey explained the importance of engaging participants, employers, and education partners in efforts to increase attainment rates.

This webinar provided grantees with:

- examples of program and training designs that have built in credential attainment opportunities;
- strategies for effectively engaging stakeholders in the process of encouraging and promoting credential attainment;
- and solutions for increasing the attainment rate for participants that have already completed the program as well as those still in the program.

This webinar was targeted to program directors, managers, service providers, case managers, career coaches and other staff responsible for providing programmatic leadership and oversight to the RTW grant program.
