

Executive Summary

Conducting Remote Monitoring Reviews

05/28/2020

Moderator(s): Leo Miller

Speaker(s): O'Shell Howard, Darren Kroenke, Roseana Smith, Terri Burgess Sandu, Julie Sherman, and Connie Wray

This webinar looks at remote monitoring as a tool for Grantees to use when monitoring subrecipients. It highlights the benefits of remotely monitoring subrecipients and covers the following topics:

- Explains what remote monitoring is.
- Discusses when remote monitoring might be appropriate.
- Details how remote monitoring might be conducted, including the pre-work, monitoring, and post-monitoring work might be done.
- Listen to the experience of three grantees in their effort to remote monitor subrecipients.
- Offers tips for success when remote monitoring.
- Points to other resources and tools to help grantees with their monitoring efforts (including national and state templates and tools).

Run of Show

Introduction	0:08
Objectives	4:01
What is Remote Monitoring?	6:51
When is Remote Monitoring Appropriate?	12:38
How is Remote Monitoring Conducted?	25:11
• Pre-Work	26:03
• Conduct Remote Monitoring	34:08
• Post-Monitoring & Next Steps	41:15
Experience from the Field	44:42
• Terri Burgess Sandu from Lorain County Community College	45:27
• Julie Sherman from Chippewa Valley Technical College	49:55
• Connie Wray from the Indiana Department of Workforce Development	56:07
Tips for Success	1:08:44
Resources	1:12:22
Questions	1:18:08
Closing	1:26:00